

Fanatic Moslem Caused Killing in Pakistan

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — The airport driver whose truck killed a Polish official Sunday is a fanatic Moslem who was trying to wipe out the visiting Communist delegation, police said today.

"I want to eliminate all enemies of Islam," Feroze Abdullah said in a statement to the police. "I wanted to kill all the visiting Polish party who are Socialists. Socialism is against Islam, and Socialists want to destroy Islam and Moslems."

Driving an airline cargo truck, Abdullah crashed into the receiving line Sunday at the Karachi airport during the welcome for President Marian Spychalski of Poland. Spychalski was not hurt, but Deputy Foreign Minister Zygryd Wolniak, a Pakistani security official and two Pakistani photographers were killed.

Twenty other persons were injured.

Police were still uncertain whether Abdullah was part of a conspiracy or acting alone. But they arrested two other drivers he was seen talking to shortly before the tragedy.

Another 12 persons including some airport security men were being questioned in an attempt to learn how the unauthorized driver got into the area. Three police officials in charge of airport security arrangements were suspended.

Authorities said some local Polish emigres are also under investigation. They said a number of Poles are employed by Pakistan Airlines, and a search is on for a Polish woman who was in charge of the airline's catering department and who disappeared after the tragedy.

The police said Abdullah is a member of the fanatic rightist Moslem party Jamaat Islami and told them: "Death will come one day, and it is better to die in the cause of Islam and Allah."

The chief of Jamaat Islami, Husain Sadiq, issued a statement saying his party had nothing to do with the airport incident.

Thinks Nixon Shouldn't Have Waved

By DOUG WILLIS
Associated Press Writer
SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Police Chief Ray Blackmore says he "would have liked it a lot better" if President Nixon had not flashed a "V for victory" sign to antiwar demonstrators at a Republican rally here last Thursday.

But Blackmore said Monday the President was never in danger from the chanting crowd and added that reports of violence at the demonstration had been exaggerated.

"A few rocks were thrown. There was a verbal attack. That was the so-called violence," Blackmore said.

He said San Jose State College students and police alike "were smeared" by descriptions of "a hail of rocks and eggs," but declined to disclose whom he blamed, saying, "I don't want to get involved in a political dispute."

He also refused comment on student assertions that it was a deliberate provocation for Nixon to make the V sign, but commented:

"I would have liked it a lot better if he had not gotten on the car and waved. We felt the sooner we could get him out of there the better. A delay of a minute could be crucial, but we did get the President safely out of there, so I can't say it was an error."

Chris Mosher, 23, a non-student leader of Medical Resistance, a group organized to treat persons injured in demonstrations, said four students were injured by police clubs and 30 affected by an irritant gas. Blackmore said one officer suffered a broken finger.

Mosher said a search of the site of the demonstration after the presidential party left turned up "four rocks, a couple of bottles and a stick or two."

Blackmore said he saw one bottle thrown, heard sounds of one or two other missiles, and had evidence that one car in the presidential party was hit by a rock. Windows were broken in a bus near the end of the presidential motorcade.

"Who threw the rocks? I don't know. It could have been working people," Blackmore said at tory of actual, or threatened, nervous breakdowns, but also on whether they had ever been bothered by:

Nervousness, psychological inertia, insomnia, trembling hands, nightmares, perspiring hands, fainting or blackouts, headache, dizziness or heart palpitations.

In one of its major findings, the report declared:

"The over-all per cent reporting having had a nervous breakdown was 4.9 per cent and an additional 12.8 per cent reported having felt an impending nervous breakdown ... without its actual occurrence ... for a combined rate of 17.7 per cent or almost one out of five with an estimated 20 million adults having experienced such severe psychological distress."

The survey found proportionately more women than men reported nervous breakdowns. Black women had a significantly higher rate than white women.

Women reported breakdown threats almost twice as frequently as did men, and had significantly higher rates for the 12 distress symptoms.

But the report found only two symptoms with significant differences by race for the same sex for both men and women.

"These were nervousness, with white men and women having a rate more than 15 per cent higher than Negroes; and dizziness, wherein Negro men and women had slightly higher rates than whites ..."

The survey found more symptoms of distress among less-educated and lower-income groups. On a geographic basis, Northeastern adults had lower rates, while Southerners had higher rates than average.

Among unexpected findings, the Public Health Service reported lower rates of breakdown among persons who had never married—especially white women—and among working men and women compared with retired men and women housekeepers, respectively.

Says Decison Is Up to Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The question of equal opportunities for candidates to reach the public is for Congress to decide, not the Federal Communications Commission, says FCC chairman Dean Burch.

In an election-eve news conference on the one-year anniversary of his becoming chairman, Burch said Monday he favored equal access to air time that may be purchased by political parties. But he opposed requiring equal, free time for campaigners.

Burch said he hadn't considered the timing of his news conference in relation to election day, but the subject nevertheless swung to election problems.

Asked whether he was bothered by the fact that a rich party could blanket television, leaving a less well endowed party almost blacked out, he said he was "aware of the problem and sympathetic to problems of this nature."

But, he added, campaigning costs money and part of a candidate's role is to raise money.

On other commission matters, Burch disclosed:

—The FCC expects to decide "promptly" the responsibility—if any—that broadcasters will have for presentation of anti-smoking ads after Jan. 1, when cigarette commercials are banned.

—There will be a delay in consideration of proposals to regulate cable television until a vacant commission seat is filled. That should be only "a matter of weeks," Burch said.

—And that, on Monday, a two-week delay was granted for petitions against renewal of broadcast licenses in the Chicago area. The petitions would have been due Nov. 2 on licenses expiring Dec. 1.

ference at the Mansion late Monday that he was confident that he would win re-election today.

He said he would not view the election as the closest he has had but said it was "the most confusing" because of the presence of a third candidate in the race. He was referring to Carruth.

Asked what his polls showed, Rockefeller replied, "I never read polls."

Carruth predicted at a Little Rock news conference that he would be the winner in today's election.

"We won in 1968 when we elected George Wallace in Arkansas and those same people still live in the state," Carruth said.

About 1,600 persons attended Bumpers' campaign-closing rally Monday night at the Fort Smith Municipal Auditorium. Bumpers noted that his late campaign stop was at the same place where he launched his campaign for governor last June.

His speech was filled with hopes and some Republican-inspired humor.

He continued his criticism of Rockefeller's campaign spending. He said Rockefeller had not talked about the issues and had expensive campaign jingles to win votes.

"I went home the other day and even my wife was humming Arkansas Country," Bumpers said.

He was referring to one of Rockefeller's radio commercials.

Calling himself the "forward-looking candidate," Bumpers again urged passage of the proposed new constitution.

He also said that if elected he would work to complete the proposed turnpike in Western Arkansas.

The two candidates for lieutenant governor, Republican Sterling Cockrill Jr. and Democrat Bob Riley, were fairly quiet Monday. Riley made a brief talk at the Bumpers rally in Fort Smith.

Former Gov. Sid McMath made a final pitch for the adoption of the proposed constitution Monday night.

CHARLES JONES

The Rev. Charles Jones, Bethany Baptist Church, Spring Hill was speaker at Monday's regular Lions Club meeting at Town & Country.

Mr. Jones was presented on a program arranged by Haskell Jones and discussed Permissiveness in the home, church and community. The general attitude of the courts has resulted in widespread moral laxness, Mrs. Jones said. He cited the increase of venereal diseases, use of drugs, magazines and shows portraying sex and drugs as a direct result of this laxness.

Quoting from the fifth chapter of Revelation, he said conditions like the present are not new and concluded that an awakening of Christlike attitudes could change things for the better.

Provins and Joe Reed, the trustees.

Salver said that 17 or 18 inmates were involved in the uprising in the Cummins' isolation unit, but that only eight were ringleaders.

The inmates took over the isolation unit shortly before 2 a.m. and surrendered shortly before 3 p.m.

Salver said the demand for freedom was given up shortly after noon, but the inmates wanted to discuss with prison officials grievances about conditions at the penitentiary. Salver said the inmates complained about sanitary conditions, inadequate kitchen utensils, lack of clothing, too many security shakedowns and that too often the inmate guards fired their weapons while guarding inmates working in the prison fields.

"After we sat down and talked, the men were pretty reasonable," Salver said.

He said that when he entered the isolation unit as a hostage Monday morning, "I felt reasonably sure they would not carry out the threat" of killing their prisoners.

"I never got the impression they would kill me, but I got the impression they wouldn't hesitate to if necessary," Salver said.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller released a statement before any of the hostages were released saying authorities would not yield to the inmates' demands.

The incident occurred on the eve of the general election in which Rockefeller, a Republican, faces opposition by Democrat Dale Bumpers and American party nominee Walter Carruth, who have been critical of the administration's handling of prison problems.

"The job Salver has done today refutes so many things that have been said about the prison system, about the leadership and about the goals we have for improving conditions at the prisons," the governor said.

Rockefeller said political considerations did not enter into his firm stand not to yield to inmate demands and said he did not think the incident would affect voter attitudes in the election.

Salver revealed that he had instructed guards to shoot at the legs of the inmates if they sought to make a break from the isolation unit.

Rockefeller praised Salver for the job he did in getting the inmates to surrender.

Casualties Dip Sharply in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fewer than 32 men died in Vietnam last week, marking a five-year low in American casualties, the Defense Department has announced.

Jerry W. Friedheim, a Pentagon press spokesman, disclosed the new low in an unusual Monday preview of figures that normally are not released until Thursday of each week. He did not give actual figures for last week—they will be out Thursday.

Asked if the premature disclosure was connected with today's elections, Friedheim said, "Why don't we leave it where I am."

Thirty-two was the lowest weekly figure in the past five years, recorded in January 1966. Also announced Monday was a U.S. troop strength in Vietnam of 374,000, compared with a high of 543,400 April 30, 1969.

No More Tickets for Inspection Stickers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Police Director Ralph Scott said Monday that officers of his agency had stopped issuing tickets on automobiles that do not display windshield stickers verifying safety inspections.

Scott said he had been advised that the statute under which the tickets were being issued probably does not legally provide for the ticketing of motorists under such circumstances.

The issue arose on Sept. 30 when Prosecutor Robert H. Dudley of the 16th Judicial Circuit sent a letter to Scott saying that the law did not provide a penalty for failure to display a windshield sticker.

Scott said that on Oct. 2 he had asked the attorney general's office for an opinion on the matter. The director said he had earlier directed a cessation in the ticketing of motorists for

Wants Probe of Incident at Prison Farm

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Walter Carruth of Lexa, the American party nominee for governor, said Monday night that he would ask the Arkansas Legislative Council's Committee on Prison Affairs to investigate Monday's incident at Cummins Prison Farm.

Carruth referred to an incident in which a group of inmates held four persons as hostages for several hours before releasing them unharmed. The inmates at first demanded freedom from the prison or they would kill the hostages.

Carruth said he thought there was a possibility the incident had political implications. He did not elaborate.

Marion Burton, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's campaign director, said Monday that the governor's office had been told "back in May" that something would possibly happen at Cummins the day before the election.

Burton said he thought the incident was "rather curious."

Burton said the report on the possible trouble came through a field worker at Pine Bluff, but Burton declined to say who the worker was.

Burton said he was not insinuating that the Democrats had anything to do with the uprising at Cummins.

Burton said he did not think the uprising would affect today's gubernatorial election "one way or the other."

This also was the attitude of Deloss Walker, campaign manager for Dale Bumpers, the Democratic gubernatorial nominee.

"I do not think it will have any effect whatsoever on the outcome of the election," Walker said.

Wendell L. Willkie was the first losing presidential candidate to poll over 20 million votes — in 1940, when he ran against Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Drug Lyrics Barred by Record Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — Lyrics about drugs and rock groups that use hard drugs have been barred by one of the nation's top 10 record companies.

Mike Curb, 25-year-old president of MGM Records, announced the new policy Monday and called drug groups "the cancer of the industry."

"As records become hits, the groups perform, not just in New York and San Francisco, but in Atlanta, Tennessee—all over. When they appear, smashed out of their minds, and describe a great experience they had on drugs, they glorify drugs. I credit hard drug record acts with starting hundreds and hundreds of new drug users," Curb said.

He said he was making the announcement in the wake of the drug-related deaths of Al Wilson of Canned Heat, Janis Joplin and Jimi Hendrix.

Last Sept. 14, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew accused some song writers and movie makers of promoting the drug culture. Agnew said, "It threatens to sap our national strength unless we move hard and fast to bring it under control."

MGM is the first major record company to announce an anti-drug policy, although some radio stations have said they will not play songs promoting drug use.

BEST WAY TO REDUCE

Dear Helen:
In addition to all the rules and exercises for reducing, I have a suggestion that has helped me a lot. When I gulp food down, I find I can eat almost twice as much. Somehow my stomach doesn't get the message to my brain until I'm overstuffed. But if I eat very slowly, I fill up faster, and also I eat less because it's embarrassing to be at the table after everyone else is through. Then too, if you savor every bite, you don't need quite so many. It's wise to choose food that takes extra work or chewing, like cracked crab, artichokes (without butter) sorta tough steak, raw carrots.

Just thought I'd share my secret: For a swift figure—don't eat fast! —SLIM

Dear Slim:

"Don't eat fast" is great advice for dieters. "Don't eat! Fast!" also helps. Right? —H.

Dear Helen:

I feel like a traitor to my generation, but I have to go along with the girl who didn't like rock festivals because they get kids on to drugs. My brother went that route. He's a real mess now.

They call it "acid rock" and we all know a lot of singers and musicians (if you can call them that) are on dope—three even died of overdoses recently. Their songs are full of drug-words, and come-ons, like "A little help from my friends" (pills), etc.

Maybe if our taste in music changed and they cleaned up the words, and the places where kids get together to hear them, we wouldn't have so many drug problems. —D.W.

Dear D.:

Feeling like a traitor to MY generation, I'm here to say that songs have always played up the forbidden "Show Me the Way to Go Home"—the Prohibition booze balled; "Little Brown Jug"; a million laments about illicit love. I doubt their words have much influence on most listeners' actions.

As for drug use by performers: If we banned every "artist" with a bad habit, we'd lose out on a lot of good stuff. And that goes for actors and writers too. Of six American authors who have won the Nobel Prize for Literature, four were alcoholics and a fifth drank heavily.

Not that I condone drugs or lushing. I'm just saying that most kids are smart enough to appreciate talent but not take on the lifestyle of the talented. Your brother, D.W., followed his crowd to rock festivals—and he did what the CROWD did, not what the music said. He could have got hooked just as easily in a back-lot apartment. —H.

I read magazines that say "Try this and that and it will add three inches to your bustline." Well, I don't have the money to buy these things. Would they really help?

I'm Miss Pipestem of 1970—a bustless, hipless flop: only that's not the right word. I eat like a horse, but I still weigh 105 and I'm five feet four.

Are there any exercises that will make me grow in special places, so I'll look like a girl? —FLAT BUSTED

Dear Flat:
Exercise won't add what

Poor Sound Brings Many TV Complaints

NEW YORK (AP) — Thousands of television viewers complained to the networks Monday night about the poor soundtrack quality of a GOP political broadcast edited from a tape of one of President Nixon's speeches.

The broadcast was supplied by the Republican National Committee. The soundtrack contained loud background hum, faded in and out in volume and sometimes lost the President's words in crowd noise.

High corporate officers for the three major networks said the GOP was warned in advance that the sound quality was poor but decided to use the tape anyway. All three networks carried the broadcast.

A presidential spokesman at the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., acknowledged that "we knew the audio was not of studio quality."

But the spokesman added that the response to the President's speech, at an outdoor rally in Phoenix, Ariz., was such that it was felt it should be made available for viewing throughout the country.

Many irate callers accused the stations of "sabotaging" the President. "Some of them think we did something to the Nixon tape," said an NBC source in St. Louis.

The poor sound quality of the President's tape was in sharp contrast to that of Democratic Sen. Edmund Muskie who appeared in purchased time following Nixon.

B Team in 21 to 7 Romp in Final Go

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

In a real grid battle in Hammons Stadium last night, the Hope B-Bruins romped over the Arkansas High B-Team, 21-7, in their final game of the season. Hope finishes with a fine 6-1 season record, boasting an explosive offense and solid defense in nearly every game.

Led by quarterback Tommy Frazier, the offense, with plenty of aid from the defense, moved 59, 20, and 52 yards for all three scores, all on passing.

With 8:00 minutes in the first quarter, the Bruins started a drive from their own 41 yard line. Relying on the running of David Johnson, Hope moved to the Razorback 10 yard mark.

On a second down after losing a yard Frazier hit Johnny Turner with an 11 yard pass for the first score with 3:51 left in the quarter. David Huddleston, who just moved up from the junior team, kicked the PAT for a 7-0, Hope lead.

Texarkana took the kick off and on the first play fumbled away, with Carl Bostic recovering it on the Razorback 20.

Three plays later, after losing twelve yards on a mad scramble, Frazier pitched out to halfback Buddie Ingram, who stopped dead and threw a looping pass to Ricky Hart for a beautiful 32 yard touchdown pass play.

After the PAT attempt was foiled, Hope still had their 13-0 lead with 2:53 to go in the first period.

Texarkana took the ensuing kickoff and 10 plays later, after moving into the second quarter, scored their only touchdown of the game on a 21 yard burst up the middle by Larry Blake. The kick with 9:02 to go in the half cut Hope's lead to 13-7.

Later the Razorbacks had pushed to the Hope 31, but a fumble recovery by Rodney Steele spoiled the threat and a couple of minutes later, the first half ended.

Receiving the second half kickoff, the Bruins ran into trouble and had to have a couple of quick passes to keep alive and from staying deep in their territory. The drive stalled, however on the 49 and Hope punted.

Later, another Bruin fumble stopped, yet another drive at the Texarkana 10 yard line and it wasn't until halfway through the last period that Hope threatened again.

Starting out at their own 48, it took just six plays on the running of Johnson and Tommy Miller to score and ice down the victory.

On the 2nd down play from the 25 yard line, Frazier hit Hart with a beautiful pass down the middle for the last score. On a rollout pass, Frazier again connected with Hart to give the Bruins two points and a 21-7 lead with only 3:26 left in the game. Shortly thereafter it ended the B-team season and senior high career for some.

Outstanding defensively were Richard Stuart, Ralph Martin, Jack Turner, Wade Harris, and Carl Bostic. The defense deserves as much credit as the offense for their outstanding play, forcing fumbles and interceptions and numerous good tackles to plague the opposition on every possession of the ball.

Hanging Out the College Football Wash

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Hanging out the college football wash:

Maryland Coach Roy Lester was singing the blues after Clemson scored 21 points in the final period to beat the Terrapins 24-11.

"If I'm not doing the proper job I'm willing to relinquish the job," he said after Maryland suffered its seventh loss in eight games. "It's not the kids' fault; it's mine."

This Saturday's Washington-Stanford telecast has been extended by ABC into nearly all of the East, with the exception of Pittsburgh, which will see Pur-

Hanratty Takes Over, Steelers Win

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A frustrated Terry Bradshaw vows he won't play second fiddle to Terry Hanratty after this season.

The golden haired Pittsburgh Steeler rookie quarterback has not been the cure-all quarterback he was billed to be and now he admits he's pressing.

Pittsburgh defeated the Cincinnati Bengals 21-10 Monday night, but it was Hanratty, coming off the bench, who bailed out the Steelers in the fourth quarter. He threw a touchdown pass and led them to another score.

"I'll never sit on the bench behind a second-year man," Bradshaw said. "It's obvious Coach (Chuck) Noll will have to make a decision at the end of the year. He's given me all the chance in the world but I haven't done anything. And if I'm going to be on the bench, I want to play behind a veteran so I can learn."

"I really don't mind if I don't start. But Terry's young and I'm young. If the coach says he's No. 1, fine, then ship me out. I just wouldn't be happy playing behind him."

Bradshaw started the nationally televised game but Hanratty took over midway in the third quarter with the Steelers behind 10-7.

For the night, Bradshaw, pro football's No. 1 draft choice, completed only four of 12 passes for 40 yards. Hanratty was seven for 11 and 128 yards.

"He looked unsettled," said Noll of Bradshaw.

"It's getting to me now" said Bradshaw. "I'm really unhappy with myself. I just have to go and search myself. I need to sit on the bench. I definitely think Terry deserves to start."

The thought of later attending a seminary also continued on Bradshaw's mind.

"I feel called to do that kind of work. I also feel called to play football. I've always thought if I could make it big in this game, then it would help attract people to the other."

Meanwhile, Hanratty was keeping silent.

"Each to his own," he replied when asked about Bradshaw's remarks.

The victory was admittedly sweet for Hanratty but even as he savored the taste of success he would not comment on possibly starting.

"Every quarterback wants to start," he said. "But I'll leave the decision up to the coach."

Hanratty unleashed a 72-yard touchdown bomb in the fourth quarter to tight end Dennis Hughes on a play which called for him to pass to receiver Dave Smith. But Smith was covered.

Safety Kenny Graham had an arm on Hughes, but when he caught the ball at the 25 Hughes got away.

Hanratty then led the Steelers 75 yards in nine plays for another touchdown in the fourth quarter. Warren Bankston scored from the one.

Neither the Bengals nor the Steelers sparked in the first half. The Bengals scored on a one-yard pass in the second quarter from Virgil Carter to Eric Crabtree after Crabtree had caught a 29-yard pass, taking the ball to the one.

But the Steelers took the kickoff and drove for the tying score.

due-Michigan State. The East originally was scheduled to receive the Louisiana State-Alabama contest, which now will be shown in the Southeast and a small section of the Southwest.

ABC also has announced three of its four Wild Card games for Nov. 14. As reported here last week, they are Ohio State-Purdue, Georgia-Auburn and Utah-Arizona State.

Fordham University will retire Vince Lombardi's old No. 40 prior to Saturday's homecoming game against Georgetown.

Ohio State Drops, Porks Move Notch

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Six, five, four, three, two ... Notre Dame is moving up.

One, two, three ... Ohio State is moving out.

But there's still room at the top for the Texas Longhorns, who remained No. 1 for the second week in the Associated Press' college football poll Monday.

Notre Dame's crack Irish troops have marched about a place a week since September, supplanting Ohio State as the No. 2 team. The Buckeyes, who were the front-runners until bumped by Texas two weeks ago, retreated to third.

The Fighting Irish's tall story doesn't impress Coach Ara Parseghian, who insists it's a long, long time from September to November.

"(It (the poll) has no effect on us now," he said. "We're more interested in the polls in late November (at the end of the regular season)."

Notre Dame won its sixth in a row last Saturday by staggering helpless Navy 56-7, and Parseghian was accused in some quarters of running up the score. But Navy Coach Rick Forzano wouldn't buy it.

"It could have been much worse," said Forzano. "I talked to Ara after the game and told him I realized they could have put the ball in the air more, and that I appreciate that they didn't. He didn't run the score up. He was as fair as fair can be."

Sports writers and broadcasters around the country handed 20 first place votes to Texas for a total of 701 points, a fingertip 17-point lead over Notre Dame's 684. Ohio State had 617 in the too-close-for-comfort race.

Texas shut down quarterback Chuck Hixson's Magnificent Flying Machine in beating Southern Methodist 42-15 over the weekend and Ohio State slapped Northwestern 24-10.

Nebraska, Michigan and Stanford staged 4-5-6 with impressive weekend victories, Arkansas and Tennessee each moved up a spot to seventh and eighth, Air Force slumped from seventh to ninth and Auburn rounded out the top ten.

the current longest losing streak of 17, set by San Francisco in 1965 and equalled by San Diego in 1968.

In Tuesday's other NBA games, the Knicks beat San Francisco 111-99 and Phoenix tripped Buffalo 110-92. Unbeaten Utah made it seven in a row whipping Memphis 119-100 in the only American Basketball Association game.

Philadelphia's whopping 54-point margin over Cleveland was the most for the 76ers since a 46-point spread over San Francisco in 1948. The 76ers led by as much as 59 Monday night.

Archie Clark led the balanced 76er attack against the expansion team with 21 points. Jim Washington added 19 for the winners. John Johnson was high for Cleveland with 20.

Phoenix caught Buffalo with its shooters cold and grabbed a 62-44 halftime lead. The expansion Braves shot only 26 per cent from the floor in the first half, and went the first four minutes without a field goal.

Connie Hawkins led the Suns with 29 points and Mike Davis netted 21 for the Braves.

The Knicks went on a 12-2 tear against the Warriors in a 90-second span of the second period to open up a 13-point lead and never were headed. Walt Frazier topped New York with 27 points while Jerry Lucas was high for San Francisco with 20.

That leaves the Cavaliers only four games shy of the NBA's longest losing winning streak at the start of a season, 15 by Denver back in Oct.-Dec. 1949.

Quarry said he would pay his fine primarily so he could act as manager for his brother, Mike, a light heavyweight boxer. He also said he wants another crack at Ali, also known as Cassius Clay.

Royal Thinks Someone Could Get Bounced

By JACK KEEVER
Associated Press Writer
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Someone, somewhere could get bounced out of college football's elite this weekend, says coach Darrell Royal of the top-ranked Texas Longhorns and he wants his players to think about that as they get ready for Baylor.

Royal admitted at a news conference Monday he was "cautiously confident" Texas would extend its nation-leading winning streak to 27 games against Baylor, which is 2-5 for the season, but he said, "you've got to respect your opponent."

"You can't take anything for granted," said Royal. "I wouldn't be foolish enough to try to convince you and the public that Baylor has as good a football team as we."

Royal added college football upsets "can happen, do happen and will happen and we're just trying to keep it from happening in Waco," the home of the Bears.

"If we're not ready to play, and they get some breaks they could defeat us," he said.

Royal said Baylor quarterback Si Southall "can throw it as far as he needs to" and the "receiving of Derek Davis has made a difference" in Baylor's offense. He also singled out the running of Matthew Williams.

The Longhorns, however, are moving the ball even better than last year when they set Southwest Conference records for total offense, rushing and scoring. They lead the nation in rushing with an average of 391.7 yards a game, better than the all-time NCAA record of 391 set by Oklahoma in 1956.

Texas is the only one of the top five teams in The Associated Press poll whose combined opponents have won more than they have lost, indicating the opposition has not been particularly weak.

Royal said Texas' offense in last Saturday's 42-15 thrashing of SMU "was pretty much hitting on all cylinders."

The Longhorns ran for 430 yards against the Ponies, with fullback Steve Worster crashing for four touchdowns and 144 yards to raise his team-leading rushing total to 637 yards on 109 carries, or an average of 5.8 yards a carry.

Royal said Worster bruised his hip against SMU, but it should not bother him against Baylor. Linebacker Scott Henderson, however, came out of the SMU game with a swollen knee and will miss the Baylor game unless the swelling and soreness go away. If he doesn't play, Royal said, rover Stan Mauldin will fill in, and offensive end Tommy Woodard will replace Mauldin.

Royal said he was not pleased with Texas' defense against SMU but only because four long passes netted the ponies 165 yards. "With the exception of that, it was pretty good."

Billy Casper Still Tops Moneywise

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Casper remained golf's No. 1 money winner for the year and Lee Trevino retained his lead in the point race, based on tournament finishes, weekly statistics showed Monday.

The figures from the PGA Tournament Players Division show Casper with winnings of $146,372 to $140,286 for runnerup Jack Nicklaus.

Trevino, who didn't play in the Sahara Open won by Babe Hickey, had his point lead shaved to one-half point by Bruce Crampton. Trevino has 1,336.1 points, Crampton 1,335.6. Hickey's $20,000 first prize in the Sahara, increased his 1970 earnings to $26,625.70.

Ex-Player Says Pro Gridders Are Fed Drugs

NEW YORK (AP) — The football player who thrills millions on television screens Saturday and Sunday afternoons is a synthetic product who often is fed drugs and illegal payoffs under the table, charges an ex-pro player.

"When I got to the National Football League I saw players fed, at an astonishing rate, not only steroids but also amphetamines and barbiturates," says Dave Meggysy, a former line-backer for the St. Louis Cardinals.

"A lot of NFL trainers do more dealing in drugs than an average junkie," Meggysy's explosive statements are made in the latest issue of Look Magazine, which is running abstracts of Meggysy's new book entitled "Out Of Their League."

Meggysy, who formerly played at Syracuse University, quit pro football because he said it was "dehumanizing." He said he had been offered a $35,000 contract to play with the Cardinals this season but turned it down because of the brutality of the sport.

"Now, after playing for 14 years, I can't really say if there is any basic worth to the game," he said. "I can't separate the game from the pay-offs-approval, money, adulation."

Discussing the drug problem, Meggysy said, "There are pro teams that dispense amphetamines and barbiturates like penny candy."

He said he first became disillusioned with football when he played at Syracuse University. "One of the big shocks of my freshman year was finding out that a lot of the guys were getting paid under the table," he said. He said arrangements were made for him to pick up $30 a week in a brown manila envelope. Other players got more, he added.

Under National Collegiate Athletic Association regulations, an athlete is permitted to receive only payment for tuition, board, books and $15 a month for laundry.

"When a player is injured," Meggysy also charged, "he is sent to the team physician who is usually more concerned with getting the athlete back into action than anything else. This reversal of priorities leads to unbelievable abuses."

At Syracuse, Chancellor John Corbally, Jr., and Head Coach Ben Schwartzwalder declined comment. In New York, Don Weiss, NFL public relations director, said: "We have no interest whatever in promoting the sale of Meggysy's book."

Hudson Takes Jump in NBA Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — Lou Hudson of the Atlanta Hawks jumped from sixth to second place in the National Basketball Association individual scoring race, the official weekly NBA statistics showed today. Lew Alcindor, of the Milwaukee Bucks, remained No. 1.

Hudson scored 102 points in his last three games, including 43 against Cleveland on Sunday, to boost his average to 29.4 per game. Alcindor's leading average is 32.3.

Alcindor's 77 of 123 field goals kept him at the top of the best shooters from the field with an average of .626. Veteran Wilt Chamberlain of Los Angeles also remained the top rebounder with an average of 22.1.

Dick Snyder of Seattle replaced Jack Marin of Baltimore as the best foul shooter. Snyder has made 37 of 39 for a percentage of .949. Marin has 33 of 36 for .917.

Len Wilkens of Seattle continued the top assist leader with an average of 10.8. Jerry West of Los Angeles is second at 9.7.

Says Backhand Shot Is Fine Weapon Now

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Vic Hadfield fingered the straight blade of his hockey stick and a devilish grin curled his lip.

"You know," said the New York Ranger left winger, "it's a funny feeling to have a backhander again."

Hadfield, like several other National Hockey League shooters, has rediscovered the backhand shot as an offensive weapon now that the curved stick has been all but legislated out of existence.

Chicago's Stan Mikita and Bobby Hull, who started the hooked blade trend some eight years ago, Phil Esposito of Boston and New York's Hadfield and Rod Gilbert were the players most affected by the NHL's ruling last summer which cut the allowed curve down to a meager one-half inch.

"It's the goalies," said Hadfield. "They were always complaining. And you know," he winked, "they're always making new rules to hurt the shooters."

If the goalies were complaining about the curved sticks, it wasn't without reason. The hooked blade made sticks act like sling shots and often the puck would sail or dip as it neared the net. They made goal-tending an even more hazardous profession than it already was.

At the height of the curved stick craze, blades were hooked 1½ inches, providing a neat pocket in which skaters could cradle the puck. But the hook necessarily eliminated the backhand as an effective maneuver.

That didn't seem to bother Mikita, Chicago's slick little center, who is credited with producing the first curved stick when he stuck a blade under a dressing room door. He could maneuver the puck almost as if it were on a string with his curved blade.

"I can't seem to find the right lie with a straight stick," said Mikita. "I haven't found one I can use." The lie refers to the angle of the stick to the ice.

Hull made the curved blade a dangerous weapon and used it to set a single season record with 58 goals a couple of years ago. He wasn't happy about having to discard it.

"With the big hook you could pull the puck in and fling it," Hull said. "Now you've got to stay with it and follow through or else it will slice. It bothers the velocity of my shot."

Hull's slap shots have been clocked at more than 100 miles per hour and it was one of his sticks that got Hadfield started on the hook. Vic had broken a stick in a pre-game practice in Chicago a couple of years ago and Hull lent him a spare. Hadfield enjoyed immediate success and adopted the curve. Now he's not sorry to give it up.

"I've found I have more control over the puck now," said Hadfield. "Especially in the corners."

Gilbert said the reduced curve doesn't bother him. "It's whatever you have confidence in," said the Ranger right winger. "I wondered how I would do when I first heard about it. Then I scored a couple of early goals and that helped. You get used to it."

Esposito, who adopted the curve when he played with Hull and Mikita in Chicago, set a record of 126 points two years ago when the 1½-inch hook was allowed. Last year, it was cut to one inch.

"I wish it was still a full inch," said Esposito, who despite the straight stick is off to the fastest start of his career. "I could snap 'em a lot quicker with the full inch. I could cradle the puck, hook it and whip it out of there."

Hockey purists were happy to see the allowed curve cut back this season. Many insist that the hooks cut down on each player's productivity rather than increasing it.

"They all started out using straight sticks," said Boom Boom Geoffrion, former NHL great with Montreal and New York and now a scout for the Rangers. "The straight stick was good enough to get them to the NHL. It should be good enough to keep them here."

Ali-Bonavena Fight Sought by Garden

NEW YORK (AP) — Madison Square Garden has thrown its hat into the ring in an attempt to get the Muhammad Ali-Oscar Bonavena fight.

"We're working on it, and we should know in 24 hours," Harry Markson, the garden's boxing director said Monday night.

Several places, including arenas in Atlanta and Miami, have put their bids in for the Dec. 7 heavyweight fight.

Ali, who beat Jerry Quarry a week ago in Atlanta, signed to oppose Bonavena for Chris Dundee, a Miami Beach promoter.

"But Ali is more interested in having the fight here," said Terry Brennan, the Garden matchmaker, and Dundee is willing to turn the contract over to us for a fee."

Sandra Haynie Displays Only One Trophy

By KAROL STONGER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Sandra Haynie has won 19 tournaments in her 10-year career as a professional golfer but the only trophies she displays in her Texas home are a couple of stuffed dolphins.

"My mother has all the silver stuff," said the LPGA's 1970 Player of the Year offhandedly. Miss Haynie is as blasé about her victories as she is about the player of the year honor.

"I didn't even know I was close until last Thursday when I read it in the paper. It's not something I think about at the start of the year," said the 27-year-old Fort Worth native who plays out of Runaway Bay, Tex.

Sandy took the honor, based on points, by edging out Kathy Whitworth, who had won it each year since its inception in 1966. While she's casual about her game which averages "right at 73" and earned her $26,605.96 this year, she's adamant about her sympathy for football players and her sentiments about the mid skirt.

Sandy tripped over a curb four years ago and injured her knee. Each year she underwent a couple of months of therapy and finally in September 1969 underwent surgery.

"Did I ever develop sympathy for football players?" she said emphatically. "I started exercising my knee the day after surgery and the pain would bring big tears. Football players start their exercise in the recovery room."

Sandra started the 1970 season without full use of her leg but was runnerup in the first tournament, losing in a playoff to Carol Mann. She went on to win two tournaments and finish second in five.

The golfer with the close-cropped hair complementing her compact 5-foot-4 frame swears she'll never wear the mid—on the golf course or off. She prefers the chic pants outfits, something unheard-of in the mid-calf era of the mid-1950s when she was making her name as an amateur golfer.

"I wouldn't play in the tournaments in which we had to wear skirts then," she recalled, "and I'll pass on them now."

The dolphins? They're among about 35 "a bunch of us caught at Del Ray Beach (Fla)," she said. "The ones I have mounted at home weigh about 10-15 pounds each. I guess they're probably the biggest I ever caught."

For the program at the Hope Rotary Club on Friday, October 30 in the Town and Country Rotarian Bob Roberts presented Bill Hair of Mountaire Poultry Company, who discussed the activities of that company.

As the club members and guests arrived, they were served hors d'oeuvres of meat products made from chicken. The speaker told his audience that Mountaire Poultry was formed in 1959 by the merging of several companies, and today it does an

Burnett Starts Slow Recovery From Surgery

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Arkansas tailback Bill Burnett started a slow recovery Monday after undergoing surgery to repair a shoulder separation he suffered in Saturday's game against Texas A&M.

Doctors said Burnett came through the operation without complications and could possibly play in six weeks if the Razorbacks are "in" a bowl game.

Burnett said he would be aiming for a return to action in five weeks, in time for Arkansas' showdown with Texas. Doctors said it was "possible" for Burnett to return in five weeks but six weeks was the normal recovery rate for such an operation.

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys are listing split end Bob Hayes as a probable starter for Sunday's National Football League game in New York against the New York Giants, although Hayes has been slowed by a groin injury. He suffered the injury in the Cowboys 21-17 victory over Philadelphia.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Dave Soutar of Gilroy, Calif., lost his final game Monday night in the $50,000 Bellows-Valvar Open bowling tournament but nonetheless scored a two-pin triumph over the man who beat him, Nelson Burton Jr. of St. Louis.

Burton actually knocked down more pins than Soutar, 9462-9389, but Soutar earned more bonus points for victories in match games. Soutar won 11 and lost five games. Burton won nine, lost six and tied one.

Episcopal Bishop Is Installed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Rt. Rev. Christoph Keller Jr. was installed Monday as the 10th Episcopal Bishop of Arkansas.

In his first sermon at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, seat of the state's 16,000 Episcopalians, Bishop Keller urged his parishioners to reconcile the Church and the world and he called on the church to enlarge its boundaries.

"God is with all sorts and conditions of men — black and white, rich and poor, young and old," the bishop said. "He is not exclusively with the poor but especially with the poor in these times."

Bishop Keller will direct the work of about 50 priests in 25 parishes and 27 missions across the state.

Perry's and Spring Hill Post Wins

In a basketball game last week Perry's players downed Monte's Barbers 85 to 78 with Lee leading the way with 25 points and Henley tossing in 24. For Monte's Odom made 22 and Hatfield 14.

In the second contest Spring Hill downed Blevins 92 to 89 in an overtime. Andrews and Sooter made 25 each for Spring Hill while Bonds had 24 and Neese 18 for Blevins.

Wednesday night two games are scheduled the first pairing Monte's and Blevins and the second Spring Hill and Perry's.

Reports Italy, China Near Agreement

PARIS (AP) — Diplomatic sources reported today that Italy and Red China are near an agreement to establish diplomatic relations after more than 18 months of secret talks in the French capital.

The sources said the meetings were continuing this week and that an accord was imminent. L'Unita, the Italian Communist party newspaper, and ADN-Kronos, an Italian Socialist news agency, reported agreement was expected at the next Paris meeting.

In Rome, the Italian Foreign Ministry declined comment on the reports.

The last detail to be solved was said to be the wording of a reference to Peking's claim to Formosa, the seat of President Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist regime. Italian newspapers speculated that Italy might take formal note of the claim to the island but not take a specific position on it.

Rose Bowl Is Starting to Build

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Those bottle-borne messages from the "Rose Bowl" are starting to reach the vacation beaches of Broward and Palm Beach counties.

"Rose Bowl" is the sarcastic name for the big brown patch of sewage which rises two miles out in the Atlantic from the underwater conduit which carries away the raw wastes of Miami Beach.

Members of the Eco-Commando Force 70, a private ecological group that operates anonymously, joined Gov. Claude Kirk and the Miami News in dumping 700 bottles into the Atlantic near the sewage outlet Oct. 22.

Each bottle carried a postcard addressed to the governor or the News.

Kirk said his office participated to show "that at least some of the sewage has got to reach the beach."

George Gardner, Kirk's administrative assistant, said, "The most significant thing about this is it points to the fact that sewage doesn't stay in one place."

For the past 11 days, bottles have floated ashore at Pompano Beach, Boca Raton, Fort Lauderdale, Hollywood, Port Everglades and Dania, 25 to 40 miles north of the "Rose Bowl."

The News has received 62 cards and Kirk's office received 47.

That argument between four-card and five-card bidders of major suits has been going on for a long time and it is doubtful if it will ever be settled. We stand pretty close to the five-card addicts but don't go all the way. Somehow or other, there will always be hands that really cry out for a four-card, major suit opening.

Not many of them will be in spades. You should try to avoid opening a four-card spade suit. The reason is that a spade opening makes it impossible for partner to respond at the one level in any suit. A heart opening leaves spades available. When you open one club, every other suit is waiting there for you.

That is the basis for the use of three-card club openings. They aren't panacea for all bidding ills. They are a nice all-purpose bid when you have 4-3-3 distribution or with other holdings that do not include a long suit.

All except the most fanatical four-card majorities would open today's South hand with one club. Not that it would make much difference in the final contract. This is one hand where all bids lead to four spades.

The heart opening lead makes it easy for South to play dummy's 10. There is always a strong presumption that a defender does not lead away from an ace against a suit contract.

East's best return is a club. This will speed up the play, since the defense will probably proceed to take two club tricks. After that start, South will make the rest of the tricks with great ease.

Instead of raising to two spades, your partner has bid two hearts. What do you do now?

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Antoinette Brown Blackwell was the first American woman to serve as the regularly appointed minister of a church. The World Almanac recalls. She graduated from the Oberlin College theological seminary in 1850. She was refused ordination because of her sex, but held a Congregationalist pastorate in South Butler, N.Y., for four years.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Last minute politicking raised hob with the networks' entertainment schedules on the eve of election day.

A half hour, purchased by and split between the Republicans and Democrats and used on each network, was placed in various time spots. NBC preempted Red Skelton; ABC "The Silent Force," and CBS, "Mayberry, R.F.D."

Excerpts from President Nixon's Phoenix, Ariz., speech last week, in which he condemned violent demonstrators, occupied the Republican spot. The black-and-white news film was, as stated by a CBS announcer before the program started, "below broadcast standards" with a noisy and sometimes blurred sound track.

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine followed with a low-key campaign talk. This Democrat-sponsored portion was in color, and Muskie was seated in an easy chair in what looked to be an old New England kitchen.

David Frost, off the networks, devoted 90 minutes to an interview with Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson on her recently published book and her memories of the White House years. The former first lady told with warmth and charm of family life in the mansion—nonstate dinner meals of tapioca pudding and "country fried steak," a Christmas in the White House with all the Johnsons together.

When Frost asked her about her emotions when daughter Luci was converted to Roman Catholicism, Mrs. Johnson explained that her daughter had been on a life-long search, adding she was happy the girl found what she sought. Was it not a shock for her Protestant mother and father?

"Not for him," Mrs. Johnson said. "Lyndon was born ecumenical."

Frost, as usual, moved easily from subject to subject and showed he had done his homework thoroughly.

NBC helped brighten the evening with one of its "World Premiere" features, a two-hour action tale of international intrigue called "Berlin Affair."

Darren McGavin played a familiar role in the McGavin style — an American investigator in Berlin hunting a former coworker who inexplicably had tried to murder him on a bridge at Pandau. The solid spy story was full of fights, bugged telephones and a romance. It was given a boost by superb location shooting in West Berlin.

Since "Berlin Affair," like so many made-for-TV film features, could have been spun in an hour, dramatic Berlin exteriors used for chases and the final shootout made the padding almost as much of a pleasure to watch as the actors.

Financial outlook for the rest of the year, according to some, is unsettled. Must've been glancing through our bills.

Obey Directions Faithfully In Taking Digitalis

By LAWRENCE E. LAMB, M.D.

Dear Doctor—I have had my chest fluoroscoped and the heart specialist said I have a very tiny heart. I have tachycardia attacks and have a lot of dizziness each day. Digitalis seems to help, but I'm concerned that, if I take it all the time, it will eventually build up poisons and not work any more.

Dear Reader—Digitalis is often given to patients to control or prevent irregularities of the heart and sometimes to improve the heart function or correct heart failure. It is a very important medicine. No patient taking digitalis should ever discontinue the medicine unless his doctor tells him to do so.

Usually, each patient has to be studied awhile to find out what is the right amount of digitalis he should take for a particular purpose. This is sometimes difficult for the physician to determine and, if the patient doesn't follow the doctor's instructions, it becomes impossible.

Digitalis can indeed become a poison, to speak, and we call this digitalis intoxication. Even the best heart specialists often have trouble telling whether the patient needs more or less digitalis, since both heart disease and too much digitalis cause similar problems.

The body does not develop a resistance to digitalis to the point that it won't work any more. It is true that patients develop tolerance to certain medicines, but digitalis is not one of them. Keep taking your digitalis unless your doctor thinks you are getting too much, then follow his directions carefully to the letter.

Dear Doctor—You state that you consider coffee inimical to the best welfare of the heart. My question is this: Does this apply to decaffeinated coffee?

Dear Reader—The caffeine in the coffee seems to be the main problem. It is a powerful stimulant or drug. I am not convinced that some people with indigestion or ulcer symptoms should drink decaffeinated coffee, since the other ingredients in coffee may have some effects on the digestion. If you have indigestion, burning in the pit of the stomach or excess acidity, perhaps it would be wise to stop all forms of coffee. If your problem is relieved, you can try a decaffeinated product and find out if it causes the indigestion to return or not.

Now, of course, if you use cream in your coffee, that adds to your fat intake. Cream contains saturated fats. The same is true for most commercial cream substitutes. Sugar in coffee is another source of calories. By the end of a year, two cups of coffee a day of any type with lots of cream and sugar will account for a number of pounds of excess fat, unless you expend the excess calories by your level of physical activity.

Stab Wounds Prove Fatal

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Ruben Davis, 51, of Star City died Monday in a Pine Bluff hospital of stab wounds he received Saturday night during an altercation at a cafe in Star City.

Police said a man was being held in connection with the stabbing but no charge had been filed.

The stabbing occurred following an argument at the cafe, police said.

Italians Are Talking About Law & Order

By DAVID MAZZARELLA
Associated Press Writer

ROME (AP) — A crime wave has the Italians talking about "law and order," too. Because of the upsurge of murders, robberies and kidnappings, the press is calling last month "Black October."

There is no election campaign to make crime the political issue it is in the United States, but public discussion of the subject is increasing. There is a growing demand for the return of the death penalty, abolished 25 years ago after the end of fascism.

Crime rates have been climbing steadily in Turin and other northern cities, which have grown rapidly with the influx of poor southerners who sometimes find no jobs and fall in with the underworld.

Rubberies of banks and post offices have become common in and around Milan, the nation's commercial capital.

Robberies throughout Italy have increased 45 per cent since 1968.

The recent kidnaping of a teen-age boy in Genoa scared northern Italy's wealthy industrialists because it was the first such snatch on the Italian mainland. The boy's rich mother paid $320,000 to get him back.

Public fears were heightened by a new outbreak of Mafia crimes in Sicily, including the daylight kidnaping of a crusading newsmen and the machine-gunning slaying in a hospital of a hotelkeeper with Mafia connections.

Newspapers and law enforcement officials blame the crime wave on a new law and a government decree.

President Plans to Vote Early

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon planned to be one of the first Californians at the polls today.

Nixon promised to show up with wife Pat and daughter Tricia at his precinct polling place, Concordia Elementary School, at 7 a.m.—the hour voting begins in this state.

On Monday afternoon, Nixon and Tricia flew by helicopter to Riverside to visit the President's 90-year-old aunt, Edith Timberlake, in a nursing home.

Riverside is the home territory of Democratic Rep. John V. Tunney, challenging for the U.S. senate seat of Republican George Murphy. The Western White House phoned advance word of Nixon's visit to the local GOP congressional candidate, Victor Veysey, who alerted news media and turned out several hundred placard-carrying partisans to give Nixon an airport welcome.

Nixon predicted a Veysey victory over Democrat Dave Tunno, an aide to Tunney who is seeking his boss' House seat. And chatting with Veysey, who was heading for a political rally, the President instructed him, "say a word for Murphy, too."

By WILLIAM F. NICHOLSON

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Dr. Salvador Allende, a Marxist Socialist elected with strong Communist support, becomes president of Chile today in a half-hour ceremony that launches three days of celebration.

Before 200 congressmen and representatives of 70 foreign governments, outgoing President Eduardo Frei was to proclaim the results of last month's runoff election in Congress, then drape the Banda de O'Higgins, a silk sash signifying the presidency, over Allende's shoulders.

Taking office with Allende is a 15-member Cabinet, including three Communists. Except for Fidel Castro's Cuban government, it is the strongest Communist participation in a western hemisphere government since the overthrow of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman in Guatemala in 1954.

Allende won a plurality in September's general election over a representative of Frei's left-of-center Christian Democratic party and a conservative.

Congress elected Allende to a six-year term last month after he agreed to constitutional amendments to safeguard civil liberties and the election process from his Communist supporters.

The 62-year-old new president, who left medicine for politics and became a senator, scheduled separate receptions later in the day for the diplomatic delegations, "unofficial" visitors from Communist nations not yet recognized by Chile and for the Chilean people.

The unofficial delegations were invited by the Popular Unity coalition of leftist parties on whose ticket Allende ran.

Allende invited the public tonight to La Moneda, the presidential mansion. His supporters planned a "popular fiesta for the new Chile" a block away on Bernardo O'Higgins Avenue, the city's main street named for Chile's national hero.

After reviewing a parade on Wednesday of units from all the armed forces, Allende will make his first speech as president Thursday night at a rally in Santiago's main soccer stadium. Radio and television will broadcast his address to his nine million countrymen.

Charles Meyer, U.S. assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs, is representing the United States at the inauguration. He said he brought Allende an oral message from President Nixon. The Chilean press accused Nixon of snubbing Allende by neglecting to send the customary congratulatory note, but Allende said he attached no "special significance" to this. Meyer said the message took note of Allende's election, "the honor of his office and the responsibility of his office."

Outgoing Foreign Minister Gabriel Valdes and the Chilean press meanwhile criticized U.S. ambassador Edward M. Korry for failing to attend the Frei regime's farewell reception for foreign diplomats last Friday, charging that his absence was a deliberate snub. Korry said he was more than 2,009 miles away supervising food shipments to natives on Chile's Easter Island.

Outgoing Interior Minister Patricio Rojas announced Monday night that a "seditious group" conspiring to keep Allende from being inaugurated was responsible for the assassination of Chile's army commander, Gen. Rene Schneider. Rojas said most of those directly involved are imprisoned awaiting prosecution by military courts. He did not identify them, but Allende and his supporters said earlier they were extreme right-

Camden Coach Innocent of Assault

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Municipal Judge Charles Plunkett held today that Coach George Burke of Camden High School was innocent of assault and battery in connection with a fight at the school Sept. 18.

The judge also fined six Negro youths who were convicted last week of similar charges stemming from the disturbance. Plunkett had taken the youths' cases under advisement for a week.

The disturbance occurred at the school shortly after a pep rally when Burke told a group of Negro pupils to disperse and return to class. It was alleged that several of the pupils began beating the coach and the fight was stopped by other faculty members and pupils.

The school administration filed charges against the students and expelled them from school. A few days later, one of those pupils, Marvin Moore, filed the complaint against Burke.

Wendell Parr, Larry Seals and Moore were found guilty of assault and battery and were Tuesday, November 3, 1970 fined $200 each plus court costs by Plunkett. Jackie McElory, David Armstrong and Eddie Moore were found guilty of simple assault and were fined $100 each plus costs.

In a prepared statement, Plunkett said Burke did on at least one occasion touch one of the defendants. The question then, Plunkett said, is whether there was an unlawful or unreasonable touching.

"This court holds that discipline is absolutely necessary to the success of any school and that a school teacher has a right and duty to compel compliance with reasonable rules and regulations," Plunkett said. "This court further holds that a teacher has a right to inflict reasonable punishment including reasonable corporal punishment upon a student for insubordination, disobedience or other misconduct."

has passed and sent to the White House," he said.

The Labor Department said the new figure is still being tabulated, but some Democrats have charged it is being held until after today's elections.

In answer, the department released a fact sheet which it said showed that in the past 10 years, October unemployment figures had been released only twice before elections and, in both cases, elections were later than Nov. 3.

In 1962, the figures appeared Oct. 31 and elections were Nov. 6. In 1956, the report came out Nov. 4, when elections were on Nov. 8.

The fact sheet said the figures are always collected on a week containing the 12th of the month. Processing takes two weeks, and the actual release date after that can vary as much as a week.

Amateur Hour Finally Dropped by TV

By JOEL DREYFUSS
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The years went by but the scenario remained the same. The hoofers, crooners and comedians performed frantically for the audience's approval, then basked in the applause that brought them one step nearer to the elusive world of "show biz."

Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour, the oldest program on network television, had emerged unscathed in the changeover from radio to television, survived two wars and settled into a comfortable routine while the rest of television sought desperately to understand the taste of its audience.

The show finally died, quietly. CBS said Monday it had been canceled, when it was not renewed by the sponsor, Geritol.

The Amateur Hour had not been seen since late September, but its disappearance was not noticed because of a number of National Football League doubleheaders that preempted its Sunday slot.

For nearly 23 years—36 years counting the time on radio—a parade of performers presented their routines to audiences across America.

Most remained amateurs, even if they won. But over the years some of the entertainment world's most luminous personalities had their first national exposure on the show—and a lot of them went away losers.

There was skinny Frank Sinatra, a member of the "Hoboken Four" quartet. They were on in 1935, and lost. Ann-Margret appeared in 1957 but the audience gave its vote to a South American who played a tune on a laurel leaf.

Some winners who went on to professional success included comedian Jack Carter, 1941; singers Pat Boone, 1953, and Teresa Brewer, 1938. A fat 12-year-old soprano named Maria Kalogeropoulos made the winners circle in 1935. She went on to greater operatic fame as Maria Callas.

Over the years, more than 25,000 acts were presented—barber-shop quartets, dancers, standup comics and specialty acts. They often had unpronounceable names and came from memorable places.

The ones who made national television were already survivors of a stringent screening process. Three units of talent scouts crisscrossed the country constantly looking for new talent. Mack estimated that only one out of 25 applicants made the TV grade.

At auditions in Nashville, the scouts turned down a young man with an unusual singing style. His hair kept falling in his eyes and he wouldn't stand still. His name was Elvis Presley.

The show was started in 1934 by Major Edward Bowes when he was the publicity-minded director of a Broadway movie house. It became a pioneering program on network radio in 1935 and within a year was the rage.

When Bowes died in 1946, Mack, a saxophone player who had been his talent supervisor, took over.

He presided over the first television broadcast, on Jan. 18, 1948 over the four-station DuMont television network—six months before Ed Sullivan's variety hour made its on-camera debut.

CBS long tolerated the relatively low ratings of the show—10 million viewers—because of its low cost. "We're devoted to the show," a CBS executive said in 1968. "We wouldn't lose it for the world."

But the Amateur Hour is gone and the viewer's nervous empathy for a star in the making can now be replaced by the animal joy of seeing the middle line-backer crash through for a crunching tackle.

Brokers Give Money to Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taking advantage of a loophole in the federal Corrupt Practices Act, at least eight stock brokerage houses have contributed $5,000 each to a fund for congressional candidates, including several who must pass on financial legislation.

More than half the $62,000 raised by the Securities Industry Campaign Committee remained on election eve to be disbursed.

The disclosure was made Monday, and followed in two days by an announcement the Justice Department is investigating political contributions by the banking industry.

A report filed with Congress Saturday showed a bankers' fund has given more than $40,000 to senators and House members involved with a pending bill on bank regulation.

The Corrupt Practices Act outlaws political contributions by national banks, corporations and labor unions. All the brokerage firms contributing to the campaign fund are partnerships, except Dean Witter & Co., a San Francisco corporation.

A spokesman for Witter said its $5,000 donation to the fund was handled through a partnership account separate from corporate funds.

The New York brokerage firms contributing to the fund have declined comment.

They are: Bear, Stearns & Co.; Carlisle DeCoppet & Co.; Goldman, Sachs & Co.; Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis; Reynolds & Co.; Saloman Brothers & Hutzler, and White, Weld & Co.

The fund reported contributing $27,784 to congressional candidates through last Wednesday, with nearly $35,000 on hand. Sometimes the fund delays its contributions until after the election.

Meanwhile, the bankers' campaign fund drew new fire from some intended recipients.

Rep. Lawrence G. Williams, R-Pa., a member of the House Banking Committee, demanded an investigation to determine if laws affecting congressional races had been violated by the bankers' group.

Murton Offered His Services

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Arkansas prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton sent a telegram to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Monday offering to negotiate settlement of the uprising at Cummins Prison Farm earlier in the day.

Murton, who was fired as superintendent a short time after digging up three skeletons from unmarked graves at Cummins in 1968, said he was "prepared to proceed immediately" to Cummins "to negotiate with the rebel inmates or perform any other service which might avoid bloodshed."

The telegram was sent from Minneapolis, Minn.

Inmates in the isolation unit at Cummins held four persons as hostages for several hours Monday before releasing them unharmed, after their demand for freedom was not met.

Hostages Are Released Unhurt; Sarver Sees More Prison Trouble

Russia Seeks to Ease Hard Line Attack

By ENDRE MARTON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union says a hard-line approach taken by one of its diplomats about the future of Berlin has been misunderstood.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko has attempted, in separate meetings with U.S., British and West German officials, to explain that his ambassador to East Germany is not a hard-liner. But Gromyko has not spelled out how the ambassador was misunderstood.

The Soviet diplomat, Pjotr A. Abrasimov, will have the opportunity to elaborate on the proposal when he meets in Berlin Wednesday with U.S., British and French ambassadors.

Abrasimov took the other Big Four powers by surprise at an Oct. 9 meeting. He proposed West Berlin be divorced politically from West Germany, and that the Soviet Union be given virtual veto power over the future of the divided city, while denying similar rights to Western powers in East Berlin.

Since that time, Gromyko has met with President Nixon, Secretary of State William P. Rogers, British Foreign Secretary Sir Alec Douglas-Horne and the German foreign minister, Walter Scheel.

Douglas-Horne is understood to have made an effort to smoke out Gromyko when the latter visited London last week. The Russian, however, declined to go beyond stressing the "community of interest" of all four great powers and of West Germany to come to terms on Berlin and, as far as it is known here, this is essentially what he told Scheel during a six-hour conference in Frankfurt Oct. 30.

Gromyko's talks in the United States—his meetings with Rogers in New York and with President Nixon at the White House—produced nothing to indicate in what form and to what extent the Soviet Union is willing to revise its hard-line position. Gromyko's visits here, in Britain and in Germany obviously were aimed at repairing the damage Abrasimov caused with his unyielding position.

Big Difference in Man and Woman Is How They Look at Store Prices

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

One of the differences between men and women is how they look at price tags in a store. A man looks to see if he can afford to buy the item, a woman looks to see if the price has been reduced and therefore made the item a bargain.

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Correction Commissioner Robert Sarver said Monday night that Arkansas' prisons could continue to expect trouble as long as the penitentiary depended on armed inmate trusty guards and employed only a hand-full of free-world personnel.

Sarver made the statement following the release of four hostages who were seized by a group of inmates attempting to win freedom from Cummins Prison Farm near here.

The inmates, armed with two .38-caliber pistols, had originally demanded a car, a full tank of gasoline and time for them to escape, threatening to kill the hostages if their demands were not met. Sarver and prison Supt. Bill Steed talked the inmates into giving up late Monday.

At one time, Sarver and Steed placed themselves in the hands of the armed inmates in exchange for two of the hostages. Two of those seized were civilian employees at the prison, and the other two were trusty guards.

The original four were Larry Doss, 21, and Jimmy Morris, 20, the civilians, and Jimmy

One in Five American Adults Experiences a Nervous Breakdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service has reported evidence suggesting nearly one in five American adults has experienced a nervous breakdown or felt one coming on.

In disclosing some findings it termed surprising, the agency reported nearly 60 per cent of the adult population is fidgety and tense at times to the point of being bothered.

The agency questioned 6,672 adults representing the nation's 111-million population of civilian, noninstitutional persons between 18 and 79. Eighty-eight per cent were white; 10 per cent black.

Angry Clamor Now Up to the Voters

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The angry clamor of a bitter mid-term election campaign yielded today to the solemnity of decision as Americans cast the ballots that chose a new Congress and shaped their state governments.

The verdict began in the chill dawn of Maine, flowed from state to state, time zone to time zone, across a continent President Nixon and his Republican lieutenants have coursed in an historic quest for congressional support.

In the school houses, fire stations, municipal halls of 185,599 precincts and voting units, Americans were electing 35 senators, 35 governors and a new House of Representatives.

In the end, both Republicans and Democrats seemed likely to claim victory in a virtual congressional standoff. Republicans seemed likely to add one to three seats to their Senate minority; little change was expected in the alignment of the Democratic House. Democrats appeared headed for statehouse gains that could provide a significant financial and organizational boost in the 1972 presidential election, adding perhaps a half-dozen governorships to their ranks.

Nothing frustrates a single girl more than meeting a handsome bachelor who can sew on his own buttons. It makes her feel so unneeded.

What this country needs—even more than a good five-cent cigar—is a brand-new cuss word with which we could describe its plight.

Life has become so noisy that about the only way a guy can hear a pin drop anymore is to go to a bowling alley.

U.S. Bringing Another AF Group Home

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Air Force's 45th Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron is being disbanded and its 20 RF101 Voodoo jets will be reassigned to Air National Guard units in the United States, the U.S. Command announced today.

It is the first reconnaissance squadron to be deactivated in Vietnam.

The command refused to say to which guard units the planes would go. Informed sources said the information was withheld so congressmen from the states affected could make the announcements and get the publicity.

Deactivation of the squadron will reduce U.S. strength in Vietnam by 600 airmen and will leave five squadrons of the 45th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing, the parent unit, at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base. American reconnaissance flights are continuing over North Vietnam despite the halt in the bombing there two years ago.

Continuing the 40,000 man troop cutback President Nixon has ordered by the end of the year, the U.S. Command also reported that another infantry battalion from the 25th Division has been pulled out of the combat zone as part of the redeployment of two brigades of the division.

Informed sources said an Army helicopter squadron of 31 UH1 Hueys and the Soc Trang air base in the Mekong Delta will be turned over to the South Vietnamese air force at ceremonies Wednesday. Soc Trang is the first American air base being turned over to the Vietnamese in its entirety.

In Washington, the Defense Department rushed out Monday night, the eve of U.S. congressional elections, a report that about 30 Americans were killed in combat last week, the lowest weekly death toll in five years. Normally the weekly casualties are not announced until Thursday.

Battlefield action across Indochina was again reported light and scattered.

North Vietnamese troops opened fire on a unit of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division's 2nd Brigade 36 miles northeast of Saigon, killing one American and wounding two in the 10-minute attack.

The U.S. Command also reported that an Army UH1 helicopter crashed Monday from unknown causes in the Mekong Delta 22 miles southwest of Saigon, killing four Americans.

South Vietnamese headquarters announced completion of a two-day operation just inside Cambodia 100 miles west of Saigon.

Hope to Host Student Fire Marshals

Student fire marshals and safety coordinators from elementary and secondary schools in Hempstead, Nevada and Lafayette Counties will attend the annual School Fire Marshal meeting to be held at the High School in Hope Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 9:30 a.m.

The workshop this year will be devoted to the study and discussion of laws pertaining to school safety, duties of fire marshals and coordinators, fire drill procedures and tornadoes, inspection procedures, causes and prevention of fires and the use of fire extinguishers.

The 23 Regional School Fire Safety Workshops scheduled for 1970 will be attended by students from more than 90 per cent of the school districts and the workshops are expected to draw more than 3,500 students.

Rudolph Bryant, Supervisor School Safety Program, State Department of Education said that through school fire marshal workshops a "fire conscious group of over 400,000 persons" had been built up.

The workshop will adjourn at 2:00 p.m.

Heavy Voting in Hope Area

A check with a few of the precincts in the City of Hope at noon Tuesday indicated voting was extremely heavy for a general election. Some observers believed that as many as 7,000 votes might be cast in Hempstead. This was the same trend all over the State.

The very long ballot will make it a long night for tabulators and full returns are not expected until well past midnight. The polls close at 7:30 p.m.

Tossup for Governor, Many Think

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Arkansans streamed to the polls by the thousands this morning to vote in the general election to make their choice for governor and a handful of other state offices and ballot issues.

A heavy voter turnout was indicated based on mid-morning spot checks around the state.

The turnout in Benton County was reported "pretty heavy" with some boxes reporting twice as many voters as in 1968's general election.

An exception was in Saline County, where county officials said the turnout was expected to be lighter than in 1968.

"Very heavy here," came the report from Fort Smith. Sebastian county officials said the turnout may surpass the 27,182 record established in 1968.

Moderate to heavy turnouts were reported from Fayetteville, Jonesboro, El Dorado and West Memphis.

Skies were clear and temperatures were crisp with continued good weather predicted throughout the voting hours. The National Weather Service said there was a 10 per cent chance of snow flurries in the higher elevations of Northwest Arkansas.

The contest creating the most interest was the governor's race. All three candidates were predicting victory.

Most political observers, however, viewed the contest a toss-up between Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and Democrat Dale Bumpers, with American party nominee Walter Carruth a distant third.

An estimated 600,000 of the state's 881,403 registered voters were expected to cast ballots in the governor's race and a variety of other contests, including a proposed new state constitution.

Rockefeller's camp predicted at least 600,000 people would vote. Deloss Walker, Bumpers' campaign manager, anticipated a vote of 625,000 to 630,000. There were 615,595 votes cast in the 1968 governor's race between Rockefeller and Marion H. Crank, who was the Democratic party nominee.

The vote predictions were based not only on a three-way governor's race, but also on the fact that the ballot will cover the proposed constitution, an attempt to repeal the state's full-crew train laws, and a proposal to raise the corporate franchise tax to finance bonds for construction of a state library building.

There were three other contests for state constitutional offices. They were:

— For lieutenant governor, Republican Sterling Cockrell Jr., 45, of Little Rock; Democrat Bob C. Riley, 45, of Arkadelphia; and Hubert Blanton, 51, of Hughes, the American party nominee.

— For attorney general, Democrat Ray Thornton Jr. of Sheridan and John Norman Warnock of Camden, the American party nominee.

— For secretary of state, the incumbent, Kelly Bryant, a Democrat, and his Republican challenger, Jim Sheets of Siloam Springs.

Voters in the 3rd Congressional District voted whether to give a third term to Republican John Paul Hammerschmidt or oust him in favor of Donald Poe, a lawyer from Waldron who is the Democratic nominee.

In addition, 48 legislative seats — 10 in the Senate and 38 in the House — were on the ballots in various districts.

There were also a number of city races and controversial local issues.
